Unity Church of Winston Salem
by Rev. Elizabeth C. Forrest

This morning my heart opened in gratitude for this beautiful day. I also gave thanks for each one of you at Unity and how special each of you are to me.

Let me share with you a part of a letter from Rev. Sky St. John, which I received in 2000.

“YOU ARE SPECIAL. In all the world there is nobody like you. Since the beginning of time, there has never been another person like you. Nobody has your smile. Nobody has your eyes, your nose, your hair, your hands, your voice. You are special.

No one sees things just as you do. In all of time there has been no one who laughs like you, nor one who cries like you. And what makes you laugh and cry will never provoke identical laughter and tears from anybody else, ever.

You are the only one in God’s creation with your set of natural abilities. There will always be somebody who is better at one of the things you are good at, but no one in the Universe can reach the quality of your combination of talents, ideas, natural abilities and spiritual abilities. Like a room full of musical instruments, some may excel alone, but none can match the symphony of sound of the Body of Christ when all are played together because God set the members – every one of them – in the Body as it hath pleased the Creation.

Through all of eternity no one will ever look, talk, walk, think, or do exactly like you. You are special. You are rare. And, as in all rarity, there is great value. Because of your great rare value you need not attempt to imitate others. You should accept – yea, celebrate – your differences. You are special. Continue to realize it’s not an accident that you are special. Continue to see that God created you special for a very special purpose. God called you out and ordained you to a calling that no one else can do as well as you. Out of all the billions of applicants, only one is qualified, only one has the best combination of what it takes. Just as surely as every snow flake that falls has a perfect design and no two designs are the same, so within the Body of Christ also. No two believers are the same, and without each member, the Body would be lacking. God’s plan would be incomplete. Ask God to teach you of your Divine Plan for Life. Let it unfold in perfect sequence and perfect order in such a way as to bring the greatest glory to God!”!

I want you to realize there is no one like you in all the world, so come bring to Unity the gift that only you can bring, your love, your light, and your playfulness. See you on Sunday.

Peace & Blessings
Reverend Elizabeth
